Statement of Purpose

“Men’s Health Raising the Awareness for Home, Family and Community”

The goal of this resource guide is to identify some of the critical male gendered focused resources, specifically identifying some of the programs and services for urban men/ boys and their family living in Alameda County.

It was designed for service providers, administrators and public officials both elected and non-elected. It is our intention to have developed a referral tool that would be useful for the “Communication, Coordination and Collaboration” of key county-wide services and programs that are critical for the development of a healthy community.

How to use Directory

- Organizations may be under different topics.
- Ask provider for all services offered.
- Websites and phone numbers are provided.
- Listings are grouped by services provided, not alphabetical.

Initiative Description

The mission of UMHI: To develop policy, change institutional practices and eliminate barriers to positive health outcomes for urban males in Alameda County.

The Urban Male Health initiative (UMHI) was launched in 2005 in recognition that males of color in Alameda county do not access adequate health care and face a multitude of challenges ranging from fatherless homes, lack of positive male role models, disparities in criminal justice system, occupational hazards to violence to societal pressure and lack of educational economic opportunity.

Ways to get involved

Urban Male Health Forum- a bi-monthly forum that brings together community members, policy makers, health care providers and various community-based organizations that serve makes to network, share ideas and learn about male health issue together.

Collaborate with our partner organizations-many of our partner organizations could benefit from different types of technical assistance. Contact us to find out how!

Communication
Collaboration
Coordination

The Alameda County Urban Male Health Initiative is charged with reducing the premature mortality of men and boys in Alameda County by focusing on the following goals.

- Developing strategies, policy recommendations, and programs that are designed to increase healthcare access and advance a continuum of care for underserved men and boys.
- Improving health outcomes for men in specific disease areas, including but not limited to prostate and testicular cancers, cardiovascular diseases such as high blood pressure, stroke, and heart attacks, depression, suicide, and diabetes.
- Studying local health concerns unique to men or which predominately affect men, and make appropriate recommendations.

The Urban Male Health Forum are ongoing meetings scheduled to bring together community members, policy makers, healthcare providers, and various community-based organizations that serve males to network, share ideas, and learn about male health issues together. The UMHI forum learning objectives are to:

- Communicate with one another and find out what other male-focused programs are doing.
- Collaborate, share resources, network and create a forum for potential partnerships to emerge.
- Showcase male service providers.
- Share strategies, best practices, and new approaches to serving males.
- Assist the UMHI with the development of policies and best practices.

FATHER-FRIENDLY PRINCIPLES

For Agencies & Organizations Serving Families

INCLUDE NEEDS OF FATHERS

Fathers, and the needs of fathers, are included in the structure and delivery model of all family services in agencies and organizations.

PROVIDE FATHER-FRIENDLY SERVICES

Agencies and organizations are open, supportive, helpful and inclusive towards the needs of fathers and further the goal of increasing fathers' involvement in their children's lives.

PORTRAY POSITIVE FATHER IMAGES

Materials, illustrations, posters, brochures and other collateral include positive, diverse images of fathers. Facilities provide father-friendly environments consistent with the needs of men and fathers.

CREATE POSITIONS THAT SERVE FATHERS

Agencies and organizations create positions that serve fathers and actively recruit men to fill those positions in order to better address the needs of fathers.

TRAIN STAFF ON FATHERHOOD ISSUES

Agencies and organizations working with families strive to provide training for all staff on working with men and on fatherhood issues.

EXPECT FATHER PARTICIPATION

Agencies and organizations develop program policies with a clear expectation that fathers should and will participate.

DESIGN PROGRAMS FOR FATHERS

Agencies and organizations make every effort to create the image that programs are designed for fathers as well as for mothers and children.

For more information go to www.First5Alameda.org/Fathers-Corps

1. Submit a "Records Sealing Application" and an "Affidavit and Petition for the Sealing of Records" to Alameda County Probation Department (fees may apply).
2. It generally takes five months to be screened and to set a court date for your hearing. You will have to appear in court only if the sealing of your record is opposed.
3. At the hearing the court will review your petition and your probation officer will report their recommendation.

Know Your Rights

- Right to remain silent. Anything said can be used as evidence. This right applies to the police, probation officer, and the immigration and Naturalization Services ( ICE ).
- Right to a lawyer prior to police questioning and during the court process. The court will appoint a lawyer to represent the youth if the Juvenile cannot afford one.
- Right to have a translator available.
- Right to have a free copy of the charges against the youth.
- Right to a trial to face and cross-examine witnesses.

If You Are Arrested

- Don't say anything to the police, except to identify yourself.
- Ask to talk to a lawyer.
- Stay calm and be polite. Keep your hands where the police can see them.
- Do not run away, resist, or event touch a police officer.

If Your Child Is Arrested

- Get a private attorney or a public defender.
- Communicate with your child about the incident.
- Gather letters of support for your child (from teachers, clergy members, community leaders, etc.).
- Communicate with your child's probation officer and provide the letters of support.
- If you are not comfortable speaking English, ask for a translator.
- See what programs in the community can help you and your child. These can be after-school programs, drug or alcohol programs, mental or emotional health programs, or family counseling.
- If your child goes to trial, always show up to court.
- If you are not comfortable speaking English, ask for a translator.
- Make sure your child is well dressed.
- Show the court you support your child.
- Show the court you are willing to help your child. This can be shown by programs you will participate in.
- Ask questions of the probation officer, your attorney, or community agency if you don't understand.

Due to multiple factors, including poor health education and a paucity of male-specific health programs, men's health and well-being are steadily deteriorating. This deterioration is best illustrated by the life-expectancy gap. In 1920, the life expectancy difference between men and women was one year. Yet, by 2009, that gap has increased to seven years with men having a higher death rate for each of the top ten leading causes of death.

Statistical Overview

In the United States, an estimated half (50%) of men's deaths each year could be prevented through changes in personal health practices. Yet, men and boys are more likely than women and girls to adopt unhealthy beliefs and engage in risk-taking behavior, and less likely to adopt health-promoting behaviors. The average life expectancy of African American males is 65.2 years (U.S. Congress, 1991:20) -not long enough to collect Social Security or Medicare.

Male deaths outnumber females in 14 of the top 15 causes of death. All of the top 15 causes are in the domain of primary care—one of the most serious health problems in America today.

- As teenagers, boys die at twice the rate of girls.
- Men have a higher death rate from pneumonia and influenza than women.
- American men are twice as likely to die from parasite-related diseases.
- Men 55 to 74 years are twice as likely as women to die of heart disease.
- Men suffer hearing loss at twice the rate of women.
- Men account for 84 percent of suicides among people 65 and older.

"Men are at serious risk in a crisis that has been brewing for decades. They get sicker faster than women. They die younger. They vastly outnumber women as victims of violence and on-the-job accidents. They are reluctant to see a doctor, and when they finally try to, they face barriers to care."
Henrie Treadwell, PH. D., W.K. Kellogg Foundation

A Checklist

- ☐ Prepare to be a father
- ☐ Attend prenatal appointments and classes with mom-to-be
- ☐ Encourage her to eat healthy
- ☐ Talk with her and the health care provider about the pregnancy, what to expect and ways to help
- ☐ Help with housework so she can relax
- ☐ Talk about your concerns about being a father
- ☐ Get support from friends and family

"As a father, I want to be there every step of the way. Because that's what being a father is really all about." Rodney Peete
